Dönnhoff (Nahe)
Highly sought after and certainly one of the best dry German Riesling producers . 'These are some of the most justifiably fashionable and hardest-to-find Rieslings in the wine world and worth all the effort that it takes to latch on to a few bottles.' The World's Greatest Wine Estates by Robert Parker. We fell in love with their dry Rieslings when we visited them in 2009. Did you know that over 90% of the Rieslings sold in Germany are dry?! Must try. Excellent with most entrees and also with our local cuisines.

Van Volxem (Saar)
Purchased in 1999 by the scion of one of the wealthiest family in Germany - the Bitburger beer family who also owns Gerolsteiner mineral water. Roman Niewodniczanski aims to revive the reputation of German Riesling as the most expensive and sought after wines in the world like they did in pre World War I. Dry to Medium dry styled Riesling - the way German Rieslings used to be in the 19th century and early 20th century. The best of everything and most importantly lots of human efforts are employed here to pursue this aim. In a little over 10 years, Roman has made Van Volxem wines highly sought after in Germany (his wines sell out very fast!) and has expanded from 15 hectares to now over 60 hectares - one of the largest private vineyard owners in the Mosel. We love the 'basic' Saar Riesling and the superb value Alte Reben. Almost all his wines are dry. Don't miss out the Scharzhofberger too!

Zilliken (Saar) One of the top sweet German Riesling producers! Since 1742 but it was Ferdinand Geltz (1851-1925) who built the reputation. In 1947, granddaughter of Ferdinand Geltz married Fritz Zilliken. Now managed by father and daughter team – Hanno Zilliken and Dorothee. Located in the village of Saarburg, Saar (now collectively known as Mosel). Only 11 hectares (10ha Rausch – Devonian slate and Diabase + 1ha Bockstein – Devonian slate and quartz, both Grosse Lage). All vineyards are steep and south facing so manual harvesting. Annual production of only approx. 80,000 bottles , all estate bottled (Gutsabfullung). i.e. no purchased grapes even for their basic Butterfly! Wines are vinified in tradition al neutral Fuder (1000 litres oak casks). Zilliken has the deepest cellar in the Saar. Almost 100% humidity and around 11 degrees. Nearby springs. Their wines are famous for their delicacy and lightness yet with great longevity!

GERMAN PINOT NOIR
Bernhard Huber (Baden)
Acknowledged as the best Pinot Noir producer in Germany, Huber has won many awards in Germany and also in Singapore including the inaugural Business Times Top 10 wine with its basic Huber Pinot Noir! Huber also won Best Pinot Noir in Germany's highest circulation newspaper - Frankfurter Allgemeine. Rated by Gault Millau German Wine Guide as 5 stars and highly respected by wine professionals and sommeliers in Germany. Huber came into the limelight when the famous French wine critic Michel Bettane mistook Huber's wine as an Armand Rousseau Chambertin when he tasted blind the wine among 30 other Grand Crus from Burgundy! No wonder it's the best selling German Pinot Noir in Singapore!
